As I walked out of my house I felt the crisp fresh air of Fall. The air was cool and the ground was covered with a bright hues of yellow gold and green.

Downtown Waldo, in contrast, is a sad sight to see these days. There are no shops - only City Hall. It looks like a ghost town - which is good for Halloween. A party is being given by the members and friends of the Waldo Historical Society to be held at the Waldo Community Center on Friday, October 28 from 6 pm until 8 pm.

There is no cost but you must be in costume to enjoy the fun and children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Are you a good pumpkin carver? Bring your best work to the party. Let our Judges decide just how good you really are and win a prize.

What will you find when you get there? Games like spook ring toss, and fishing for spooks.

Our resident Gypsy will tell your fortune.

Mariah the Witch will be there to scare the spook out of you.

We'll have BLOODY HAND JUICE to quench your thirst, and lots of goodies to bite.

Dracula will be there (or will he be a Pirate)? Come on and get spooked.

Following the party, we will be taking some brave souls to see the best decorated Halloween houses in Waldo.

New WHS Logo Pins

The members of the Waldo Historical Society now have a pin to wear to special meetings and occasions to make us recognizable to those who support the WHS.

The colorful pins are 3/4" diameter on gold plated discs with a Military clasp. The cloisonne' logo includes a train engine (for Waldo), oranges (for Florida) and Azaleas (for the South).

We are very proud of our new pins and are making them available to all of our members.

WHS Spaghetti Dinner

Our Spaghetti Dinner was a huge success this year, bringing many more people in for our "Signature" spaghetti created by our very own Master Noodler, Marie Ankney. You just can't get better spaghetti anywhere. We've been asked why we don't do this more often. Well . . . too much of a good thing . . .

We have some very hard-working members and very supportive citizens. For this we are so thankful - because it is a lot of work - but so worth it to make our tummies happy.

As many of you may know, we had a "Spaghetti Dinner for Two in a Basket" raffle, which included EVERYTHING to make your own spaghetti dinner, including the pot, the spaghetti and sauce, the utensils, plates, wine, cork screw, wine glasses, place mats, napkins, even the garlic toast and so much more. At the close of the dinner, the winning name was drawn from the 100+ tickets sold and the winner was TA-DA!!

MR. DON THIGPEN - A Winner!

Mr. Don Thigpen, of Waldo, was the winner of our "Spaghetti Dinner For Two in a Basket" raffle. Millie Keirnan, President of WHS called Mr. Thigpen to inform him he had won, and made arrangements to meet him on Saturday morning at Hardee's to deliver his winnings.

A Little Bird Told Me
by Lucy Roe Cook

The ladies of the Waldo group called the hand played canasta each Monday evening at the home of Mary Ann Rich's uncle.

Mary Ann Rich, Vera Mauldin, Penny Dodd, Marie Ankney, Christine Mays and Lucy Cook celebrated the birthday of Christine Mays at Western Steer in Starke and then played Canasta.

Christine and her partner, Penny, won big time. Christine's niece, Liza Williams was there to observe.

Mabel Vernon is at North Florida Regional Hospital. Keep her in your prayers.

Catherine (Cat) White is at Shands hospital. She also needs prayer.

As I was flying over Cracker Hill, I looked down to see the drive of Vic and Marie Ankney. I saw a distant cousin, feeding on a large snake. He is one large buzzard, that cousin of mine.

Now I must tell you of a sassy lady by the name of Vera Mauldin. This person claims to be my friend. She came up behind me in Wendy's parking lot to tell me that I had a bunch of "Hitchhikers" on me. I fluttered around, flapping my wings. "What are they? What are they? Get them off me." Vera laughed so hard, because I knew not of hitchhikers. I got them all off after some labor.

The cat that was lost and staying downtown with the sign man was re-united with her family. She will be missed.

Good news from our Postman, Jeremy Scott and wife, Dawn, on the birth of Aubrey Scott. Her big brother, Nicholas Scott is very pleased. Congratulations to the Scott family.

When flying about, I observed a man looking for a copy machine and was reminded that the Waldo Library has a copy machine. Copies are ten cents. Don't forget our library.

A neighbor in Graham, Dave Howard, is in the hospital. Prayers would be appreciated.

Our other sign man, Carl Bedford, of Carl's Signs in Starke on hwy 301 put up the banners and the signs for our annual Spaghetti Dinner. So many worked so hard to make our dinner a success this year. Tables were set with beautiful crepe myrtle flowers as centerpieces.

Music was playing as friends visited and new friends were made. The dinner becomes more popular each year.

A special thank you to the Waldo Baptist Church for allowing us to use their facilities.

My heart is all aflutter. Watch for me. I'll be flying over until my trick or treat bag gets too heavy and then I'll be dragging it along behind me. A happy and safe Halloween from this Little Bird.

Words of Wisdom - NOT!

Submitted by Thelma Bay

The word this month is Family. The official definition is a group of people related to you by blood or marriage. Get Real! Let's see how smart you are. Family is

- A: A group of people who live close to you so they can drive you crazy
- B: So they can borrow your stuff
- C: Ask for money or
- D: All of the above.

If your answer is D, Congratulations - you're a member of a family!

Continuing this month, more Waldo History from the Facebook pages.

This month, we're highlighting some of the comments made about Waldo Police Chief James Huckeba.

Chief James Huckeba

Huck - The Matt Dillon of Waldo
Chief Huckeba

Police Chief James Huckeba served the city of Waldo from sometime in 1961 to 1976. His tour of duty was most memorable due to his unique personality and wisdom, especially among the youth of the day. Many memorable, some very humorous, stories have been told, again, especially among the youth. What about his fame of "Waldo's Speed Trap."

Huck gave me a ticket for running a stop sign on my bike, I was 12-13. I, of course, argued with him, which made him madder. I argued that I couldn't see the sign because of the bushes, so he had to go in the ditch & pull the bushes down so I could see the sign. I never ran the sign again, nor did I pay the ticket!!! LOL, but I'll never forget Huck climbing in that ditch...

... Huck

I remember when I had my beauty shop in Waldo. Everyone said, "Huck will never give you a ticket." So one day when he stopped by the shop I asked him, "If I were speeding would you give me a ticket." He said, "Of course, the law is the law."

I asked my Father once what he would do if he caught me littering. He told me he would make me pick up every piece of paper in Waldo! In 1967 I got a speeding ticket from a Highway Patrolman on 24 coming home from work. Daddy took my license for six months and sold my 57 Chevy.

Daddy started as Police Chief around the beginning of 1961. I remember watching him make his first traffic stop. He came out of the Police Station right after he was hired and did not yet have a Police Car. He walked out into the street in front of a car he thought was going too fast, put up his hand and stopped him and gave the driver a ticket. It was the first of many tickets he wrote!

All through Jr. high and high school, I was a member of the Alachua County Junior Deputy organization and knew several law enforcement officers. In particular I was well acquainted with deputy Bill Whitney, Highway Patrolman Fred Sowell, Waldo Chief (retired USAF MSgt.) Mr. Croft, and Mr Huckleba.

As a 15-16 year old, Mr. Huckleba, often referred to by the guys as Huck, was a good friend. I used to ride around with him on his rounds. I don't recall how this came to be, but obviously he took an interest in me to allow it.

Sometimes in the late evening I would sit with him at the Gulf station on the corner of U.S. 301 and S.R 24 and he would see an old truck driver acquaintance and stop him just for fun.

I have 3 memorable stories:

(1) we were sitting on the corner of 301 and 24 in the 1957 Ford cruiser and someone drove through on 24 in a 58 Pontiac at a very high rate of speed. We chased the car at a wide open speed all the way to Gainesville, never getting the license plate number. As we got near the bowling alley, the engine blew up in the cruiser and we were stranded. I don't recall how we got home but did hear later that there was some discussion by the city councilmen and the mayor and others about me riding with him on that very dangerous adventure.

(2) another time, I was with him, we chased a car northbound on 301 which was speeding. Huck turned on the overhead lights and the car didn't stop. Then he turned on the siren and the car still didn't pull over. Finally Huck pulled out his big pistol, held it out the window and fired it. The car then pulled over.

(3.) we drove down to the canal and Huck took aim at a turtle. I guess he just wanted to target practice a bit. Anyway I would catch him on occasion when I was home on leave from the Air Force. Huck was a good man and I remember him fondly.

Mr. Huckabee gave me a ticket on my way home from babysitting. I told my boyfriend at the time and he stole the stop sign for me later that week. I took the sign with me all the way to Texas when I moved and when I moved back to Waldo I took it to City Hall to return it but they said it was the wrong size and didn't want it. Funny what we do as kids.

Well Huck was a special kind of man. He was like Matt Dillon on Gun Smoke. There are so many stories that could be told about him. But no matter where the trouble was or what kind Huck did not wait for the Sheriff. By the time they got on the scene Huck had them cuffed and sitting in the back of his patrol car. We all have our positive and negative but I can tell you that Huck was one hell of a man. What one man did now takes six.

Jim Huckleba added this information:

Chief Huckleba was born James Robert Huckleba in Anniston, Alabama on August 29, 1930. He married Loventrice Lindley Huckleba on February 6th and had four children, Linda Huckleba Starr, James Robert Huckleba Jr., Wiley Glenn Huckleba, and Raymond Franklin Huckleba.

He became the Chief of Police in Waldo, Florida in 1961 back when Waldo was a sleepy little town with Live Oaks shading Main Street and U S 301. This was the main route for people in the North to travel to South Florida.

There was one traffic light and a 15 MPH school zone that many of these travelers had difficulty seeing, and Chief Huckleba was given the task of making them more visible. This began a process that put Waldo on the map as a speed trap. This legacy continues 50 years later. I have heard my father say many times that no one got a ticket who wasn't breaking the law!

Many of you can tell and have told of your memories of Chief Huckleba. Frankly, I have heard more stories from other people in Waldo than I heard directly from my father. He was very strict about not discussing Police business at home or with the family.

Many times I was approached in the community and asked about particular incidents. I was almost always in the dark about them. I think he did this not only to protect confidentiality, but also to protect his family from inquiries.

...HUCK

Linda, Jim, and Glenn began attending school in 1961 and all of us eventually graduated from Gainesville High School. Ray came along later and went all the way through Waldo Community School and Graduated from Eastside High School.

Linda married Franklin (Price) Starr and currently lives in Bryceville, FL. She is an assistant to the Sheriff of Nassau County Florida.

Frank is an attorney for the State Department of Transportation.

Jim married Rosemary Ethridge Huckeba who owned Rosemary's Hairstyling Studio from 1975-1979 when the Hardware store bought her side of the building for expansion. This is where the old Post Office used to be.

Jim was a Special Education Director and Rosemary was a Special Education Teacher and are both now retired and living in Ocala, FL.

Glenn and Beth live in St. Cloud, FL. Glenn Huckeba is retired from the Air Force and now manages the Air Traffic Control Tower in Kissimmee, FL. Beth is a manager for Lockheed Martin.

Ray Huckeba is also retired from the Air Force and is now a civilian consultant to the Air Force. He lives in Las Vegas, Nevada. His fiancée, Stephanie is currently in the Air Force.

Mother continued to live in Waldo up until a few years ago and continued to provide the Waldo home to which we could always return. She now lives with Linda and Frank in Bryceville, FL. She periodically visits with each of her four children.

Chief Huckeba contracted Prostate Cancer and passed away on February 6, 1994. He led a full and productive life and had the opportunity to provide a loving relationship with children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, making each one of them feel they were special. We all love and miss him, and appreciate the opportunity the Waldo Group has given us to share our memories and hear how he affected so many people in and around Waldo!

Mama's Aprons

Submitted by

Sarah Goldtrap Edmondson

I remember my Mama's aprons. She worked so hard in her day. She would go out to the garden in the morning and gather vegetables for dinner. Dinner was our main meal at noon. If we had chicken she would go out and kill a chicken and dress it. She would start the fire in the wood stove on the back porch and spend the morning cooking dinner. Her corn bread was the best. I wish I had learned to make it like she did. On wash day she would build a fire under the big iron wash tub and wash the clothes. She would hang the clothes on the clothesline to dry. After they dried, she made starch and sprinkled them with starch. Then she would roll them up to iron the next day. We had a pig pen down by the railroad tracks. In those days Daddy owned land all the way down to the tracks. When they butchered a hog, Mama made hog head cheese and chitlins. The smell was really bad and I would not eat them. She made sausage and they cured the bacon. When I think back, it is amazing how hard Mama and Daddy worked. In the later years after she got a washer and dryer and gas stove she had time to watch her soap operas every day after dinner. She deserved some luxury and she loved" As The World Turns". God bless my Mama and Daddy.

Waldo's Kids by Thelma Bay

Are you enjoying this little break in the weather? I know I am, but now the weatherman is predicting a warmer, dryer winter than usual. We can't win.

Wet or dry, cold or hot, be sure to come to the Fall Festival at Waldo Community School. The date has been set for Thursday night, October 27th from 5:30 to 8:30. There will be plenty of booths, a cake walk and lots of good food at reasonable prices. Tell the kids to wear their costumes because there will be a costume contest. All money raised at the Festival remains at the school to benefit our kids.

Monday night, October 31st, there will be a Fall Festival at Waldo First Baptist Church. The hours are from 6:00 to 8:00 pm in the Family Life Building. Everything is free, food, games and just good fun.

I can't say Thank You enough to all of our faithful volunteers at our school. Our newest volunteer, Mrs. Ginnie Duncan is wonderful and very much appreciated for her work at the school.

Several more events are on the calendar for the holidays. Santa will be at the Caboose again with the date to be announced. Also, there will be a holiday musical at our school, combined with our Santa's Workshop. You don't need to have a student at school to come out and enjoy the program and shop.

I hope all is well with you and yours and I'll see you next month.

Dear Gabby

Dear Gabby: I am responding to your comments in the September issue of the Waldo Phoenix.

The three inaccuracies to which I referred are as follows:

The use of the word "Hate" to describe my signs suggests the anonymous reader is uninformed. The fact you did not mention this in your remarks suggests a bias on your part against my signs. In a column such as yours, I had hoped you would remain neutral, but it's okay with me if you have a negative opinion. However, if your opinion is negative, I do think you should state specific reasons why you don't like my signs.

You did not present any challenge when Anonymous seemed to be speaking for all of Waldo. Your failure to at least mention this fact is further evidence of your bias against my signs.

I still contend that Waldo does not have an image problem and I believe you are wrong to say we do. What we have is a reputation for vigorous law enforcement. I like our reputation and have enjoyed the benefits of it. I believe Waldo is one of the safest cities in the United States. We enjoy a low crime rate. We can walk our streets at night without fear. I've never heard of anyone who lost a job or missed a meal because of our reputation.

We do have an image and there are a few whiners, but we do not have an image problem. The whiners remind me of people whose dinner conversation is about the evils of farming. My father taught me to never complain about farmers when my mouth was full.

People who complain about legitimate law enforcement while enjoying the safety of life in Waldo are just as paradoxical. If you disagree, perhaps you or your readers could provide a list of the problems.

In your last column, I was amused by your concern for the gender of the anonymous reader. I had some reason to believe that the anonymous reader is female so it seemed natural to use the feminine gender. I have read many books in the last ten years and almost all of them used the feminine gender where formerly they would have used the masculine gender. This may be due to the publishers attempting to sell more books in the feminine market or it could be a degradation of the English language caused by the rise of the feminist movement in America. I suspect but can only wonder if Gabby is a closet feminist. I think we are not likely to ever know since I will not discuss this topic with anonymous people.

You referred to my signs as giving the impression that I am aggressively going after Cliff Stearns. Also, you stated that if I worded my signs as professionally as my letter to you, people would be more understanding. My letter was not professional. I received no payment for it. My letters and all my signs are the work of an amateur. It is simply a labor of love for my country. May I suggest you and your readers watch the DVD, Christmas Without Snow. It is a great film starring John Houseman, which has an excellent scene clearly depicting the difference between a professional and an amateur. It is available in our local library. It is one of my favorite films and I believe you will enjoy it.

My signs are very good and I work hard on them. Traffic is generally traveling at 35 mph or faster. At these speeds, readers only have a few seconds to read. Ideally, no sign would have more than seven words. I have to choose the words very carefully to convey the message. I spend as much time on the typical sign as I have spent writing a letter to you.

How do I tell people in seven words that Cliff Stearns promised he would not become a career politician and now, after 22 years, is firmly entrenched in office? How do I say in seven words each person in America only has one congressman in the House of Representatives and Cliff Stearns is our only representative? All over America, people seem to think all the congressmen are bad except their own congressman. How do I say in seven words we are in real danger of losing our liberty and Cliff Stearns is the problem? How do I say in seven words he has used billions of our tax dollars to buy votes and has abandoned his constituency. How do I say in seven words Cliff Stearns has contributed to trillions of dollars in national debt, effectively stealing this money from our grandchildren?

We are in danger of losing our liberty. Think about the seriousness of this statement. Rather than criticizing my signs why don't you ask your readers to say something nice about Cliff Stearns. I will readily admit he looks nice. He is clean, friendly and charming and he doesn't pick his nose in public. However, if you start a debate among your readers about the benefits and dangers of his policies, you will get a much different reaction.

I want Cliff Stearns out of office because he is a terrible congressman and does not represent us well. Keeping Stearns in office is the equivalent of not changing doctors after he's cut off the wrong leg. (Notice the use of the masculine gender.) Business as usual in Washington D. C. means continuing reckless spending without the benefit of a budget. Keeping Cliff Stearns in Office simply means more of the same. Removing Cliff Stearns is vital to the security of our nation. I work hard on my signs and I am proud of them. I'm not ashamed of what I am doing and I sign the letters I write. Unlike Anonymous, I stand up for what I believe and I don't try to hide my identity. My signs are not aggressive; I am aggressive. Like a doctor who aggressively fights cancer, I am aggressively fighting to remove a cancer from office.

... see GABBY on page 6

Finally, I alone am responsible for my signs. They do not in any way affect the reputation of Waldo because I am only one person. I speak only for myself and can no more speak for Waldo than can the Anonymous reader.

Sign Writer - Bobby Cook

Dear Sign Writer, My column is an advice column. You did not ask for my advice, so may I suggest you send this letter to the Editor. Regards, Gabby

If you've driven by the Baptist Church you couldn't help but notice all the cars and trucks during the week. A small group of ladies are doing great things with their sewing projects and another group has worked hard to make the rummage sale successful. I'll go into more detail next month about the sewing projects and the sale.

Love Bug Season

According to Snopes.com, Love Bugs are not the result of a genetic cloning experiment gone wrong, nor were they unwittingly loosed from a research facility charged with studying exotic insects. They also weren't bio-engineered as a natural solution to the mosquito problem. (Love bugs do not eat mosquitos: the adults do not eat at all, and larvae feed on decaying plant material.) These overly amorous critters are native to Central America; the best guess as to how they came to these United State places them as undiscovered stowaways who arrived by ship in Galveston or New Orleans around 1920. They migrated into Florida in 1947 from Louisiana, looked around, liked what they saw, and decided to stay. Their natural capacity for reproductions took care of the rest.
